

Ezekiel's Tile

by Jeremy James

“Thou also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and pourtray upon it the city, even Jerusalem:”
– Ezekiel 4:1

The Bible makes considerable use of “types” or images that point to a deeper reality. The red heifer in Numbers 19 is a type of Christ, while the oil in the Menorah is a type of the Holy Spirit.

A type may be regarded as a spiritual picture, a way of approaching something that might otherwise be too daunting if we tried to absorb it all at once.

When an artist paints a picture, he is obliged to omit a great deal of detail. The medium he is using has its limitations and he must present the elements which he believes the viewer will appreciate the most.

The New World Order comprises a huge mass of detail. It is akin to an IT project which takes years to plan and develop. Only those who are working on it can make sense of the charts and blueprints. When an outsider comes along, he hardly knows what to make of it. He needs some background in IT before he can build a picture in his mind of how the new system will work and what its designers are hoping to achieve.

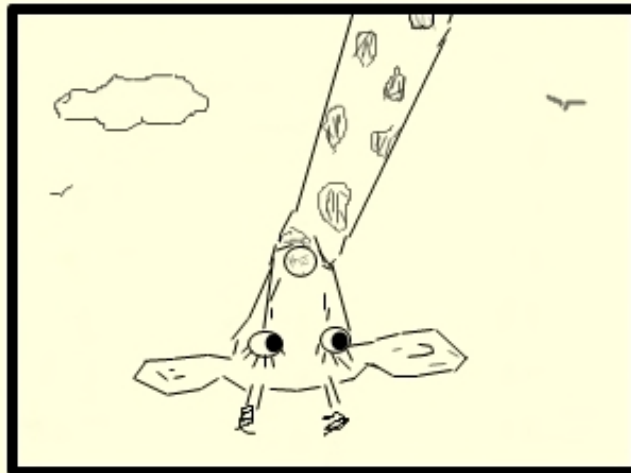

Very few people today have any comprehension of the threat which new technology poses to mankind. It never occurs to them that a small, highly organized group of people might be using it to take control of the world. They may get a sense occasionally that “something is going on” but they don’t see the big picture, or even a small part of the big picture.

In this paper we attempt to provide newcomers with a series of glimpses into the mindset of the people who are behind the coming New World Order. We can only hope that a few of them might fuse in their minds and produce an “Aha” moment.

When the LORD asked Ezekiel to portray Jerusalem on a tile (Ezekiel 4:1), the prophet knew he could do no more than sketch out a few familiar buildings and hope his audience would know that the scene he depicted was a representation of Jerusalem as a whole.

So, for what they are worth, we offer a few glimpses, in cartoon form, into the dark scenario that is rapidly unfolding in the world around us. We use humor wherever possible, like drops of honey here and there, to make the exercise more palatable.

"Was that when you

"Yeah. I knew then I symbolized

"Was the torch
a symbol as well?"

"Yeah, but I used it to scare away the gulls."

It seems they're tired of fleecing us and plan to

"Yes, it's true. Every word.

"Oh dear, oh dear.
It's too much to take in.
... By the way, aren't you worried that I'll tell

"Oh dear girl, not at all!
Go right ahead. They'll They'll laugh till their

"Dr Fauci, you and your wife must be delighted to hear you have been nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize."

"Indeed, we are. The prize will enable me to develop a new strain of reusable streamlined lies that would fool even me."

"You will no doubt agree that some of your lies to date have been a little shakey?"

"As you know, lying is an exact science and we are learning all the time. I am confident that the next generation of lies will surpass anything we have seen to date."

"Can you give any hints as to what we might expect?"

"The next generation of lies will be mind-boggling. They'll make the spinning globe, dinosaurs and atomic bombs seem like kindergarten toys."
